

CS670/470 Term Project: Final Report and Final Presentation

Yong Zhuang, Wei Ding, UMass-Boston

05/14/2019

1 Final Presentation

Each team will present your final results on Tuesday, May 21. Presentation order will be announced on May 21 in class.

Hard Copy Submission: Each team should submit a hard copy of the slides on Tuesday, May 21 in class.

Presentation Contents: As a minimum, include the followings:

- All the models you used in term project.
- How the experiments were designed.
- Summary of the results
- Your conclusions
- What you learned from the term project

Presentation Date: 3:00 pm, May 21, 2019

Presentation Time: 20 minutes / team

Peer evaluation: Peer evaluation link will be announced on May 21 in class. Peer evaluation scores should be submitted by the midnight of May 21.

2 Final Report

Soft Copy Submission: Each student should submit a final report (soft copy) through your UMassOnline account.

Due Date: 3:00 pm, May 21, 2019

2.1 For undergraduate students

One page report. Summarize all the models used and the results obtained. As a minimum, include the followings:

- Your understanding of all the models you used in term project (Phase 1,2,3).
- Summary of the all experiments results.

2.2 For graduate students

Two pages short paper. Summarize the project objectives, the models used, the results obtained and your conclusion. As a minimum, include the followings:

- Project objective.
- Models description (includes all the models you used in phase 1, 2, 3).
- How the experiments were designed
- Summary of the results
- Your conclusions